Another Warrant Out for Gloucester Track's President.

St. Louis to Have Winter Racing Commencing To-Morrow.

The Camden County Law and Order League

seem determined to land President William J.

Thompson, of the Gloucester race track in ing. This was also in Freedman's store, and the proprietor was also absent at the time of lail. They have already secured an indictment against the gentleman in question, but are not satisfied. Yesterday another warrant was sworn out for Thompson's arrest on the charge of keeping a disorderly house, but up to a late hour last night it had not been executed. The meaning of the second warrant was not plain until Col. Hutty, the moving spirit in the crusade explained. He said:

"We have a definite idea in view. The law provid's that when a man is recommitted for a second offense the committed for a second offense the committed for a second offense the committed for a second offense the second warrant was provided to say anything or look at him. Nothing the half should say anything or look at him. Nothing the sunday anything or look at him. Nothing the last out the store, and gave an alarm.

After arousing the tenants be ran around to the quarters of Engine Company 17, at 91 Ludiow street, and gave an alarm.

There was much excitement in the house. The was much exciteme law provids that when a man is committed for a second offense the determined that the race track must go. We have caused the indictment of the President of the track. If he is convicted the Court can at its discretion impose a slight fine. When the second offense comes before the Court can at its discretion exists. A term of imprisonment must be imposed." Thompson will, no doubt, as soon as he learns that a wurrant has been issued, give himself up. He takes matters very easily.

That the Gloucester track will close on Saturday is a certainty, and that it will be continued at Washington is a possibility. The fact that the counting an offer made by Thompson said, considering an offer made by Thompson the considering an offer made by Thompson and the considering an offer made by Thompson the considering an offer made by Thompson and the considering an offer made by Thompson the considering an offer made by Thompson and the considering an offer made by Thompson that the considering an offer made by Thompson and the considering an offer made by Thompson and the considering an offer made by Thompson the considering an offer made by Thompson and the considering an offer made by Thompson the considering an offer made by Thompson and the considering an offer made by Thompson the constitution of the indication of the two frees.

But who ever saw a real, genuina, gooder fastened good thing that didn't husb hast. That was the Elizabeth filly place when the race was over. Natalie's, heavily backed by Dwyer, Jones, Vendy and other plungers, won handly from Marty B. Once Again, in some unexplained beliation, secured third place.

In the second race Toano, an overwhelming invorte, galloped in at the finish. This made his sixth successive victory, and he is certainly a wonderfully improved norse. Every one looks for his defeat, but he wins on day atter day, and there is always a fair price against him. Yesterday Dalayrian was the runner up and Noonday third. Judge Burke thought that McWilliams, the rider of Noonday, who was third, was neither energetic nor ambitious, and therefore talked to him like a Dutch uncle. . . .

The third race furnished a very pretty contest between Dago, Uncle Sim and Feruvian. Uncle Sim was made invortie on the strength of his recent laces which by the way were not very good. Feruvian was preferred over Dago, though it is known that he does not care for weigh or distance any too well.

Dago's race on Nov. 16, when in a seven-furiong dash he got off last in a field of ten and easily defeated Rialto, who was not in form, was a remarkable performance, and the bookies and public seemed to overlook it. the bookies and public seemed to overlook it. the ran up to that form and won easily. He will hardly do at five furious, being very slow to get in motion. Uncle sim beat Peruvian a head for the place, and three lengths away came George C., who is rounding to . . .

That good two-year-old, Rittzen, again de-frated a lot of all-aged horses at a mile. Young Evans pursued the same tactics of opening up a gan on the iar turn and then whipping for dear life all the way home. With a less game and strudy cold than Bilizen this kind of riding would not do. Vortex was second and St. Denis a bad third. The riding of W. Penny on the latter was absolutely painful.

The fifth race went to Vendetta, who was third chadee in the betting. Mountain beer was second and Longstride third. The least said about this race the better. Apollo and Onaway were the preferred ones in the sixth race, and in the prettiest finish of the day Apollo won by a neck.
